HAMILTON JAMES AND BRUCE APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR

8 July 2009 – The Board of Hamilton James & Bruce Group Limited (HJB) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Steve Roberts to the role of independent Non Executive Director. Mr. Roberts has provided consultative services to HJB for the past 12 months and now joins the Board permanently.

Mr. Roberts joined the recruitment industry over 25 years ago and has held roles from Recruitment Consultant to co-founder of his own business LINK recruitment; Steve sold his remaining shares in the company in 2007. Throughout this time he has amassed extensive knowledge, contacts and experience working closely with recruitment companies in both Australia and overseas to overcome market challenges. Mr. Roberts is well placed to provide strategic and operational advice.

HJB Chairman, Mr. Tim Burton-Taylor said “Steve is an industry stalwart who has a great deal of recruitment experience, at both management and board level”.

“He has a successful track record and the experience he has gained in both the boom times and in previous recessions will prove invaluable to HJB”.

“The HJB Board is very excited to formalize its relationship with Steve and we look forward to working more closely with him”.
